CENTRAL HUDSON GAS & ELECTRIC CORPORATION
A AND C LINE REBUILD PROJECT

EXHIBIT E-2
OTHER FACILITIES

EXHIBIT E-2 – Other Facilities

This section addresses the requirements of 16 NYCRR §88.2.

There are no new substations or modifications to existing substations proposed as part of the A and C Lines Project. There are three existing substations associated with the existing and proposed rebuild of the A and C Lines:

- Pleasant Valley Substation located at the North end of Project connecting the C-Line,
- Todd Hill Road Substation centrally located connecting both the A and C lines, and
- Fishkill Plains Substation located at the South end of Project connecting the A-Line.

There is no work proposed at any of these substations associated with the A and C Lines Project other than terminations of the new conductors to the substation infrastructure.
